

i sat down at my computer after another night of pain another day of misery
it was driving insane

i found your ad
staring up at me and knew i had to e mail for you to hear my plea

i told you of my plight and my woes of being scared you called me on the phone and i knew you cared

in the blink of an eye
i was back at your door id had some treatment and was back for more

then the day came that id get a new smile from the man in the book that went that extra mile i didnt sleep the night before i couldnt wait to be back at your door today is the day i hide my smile no more i now have my smile back and my soul's returned too theres not enough words of how to thank you.

so at the end of the day if you cant take no more open the book and go knock on the door!!

DENTAL PRACTICE.

A HEARTFELT THANKS TO EVERYONE AT GUIDEPOST

"CAN'T STOP SMILING "
